Enjoy lunch and join current TAB members and local business owners for a private, confidential roundtable discussion. You will sample the unique way that thousands of business owners around the world are achieving more. Improved economic performance is expected in 2011. Success will go to those who are best prepared and have access to the best resources. One resource you can never have too much of is business brainpower. By participating in this fast moving abbreviated-TAB meeting, you will take away ideas on how you can make 2011 one of your best years ever.

This event is for CEO's, Presidents, and owners of private businesses only.
